Lulu.com, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Queen Elizabeth II s visit to Russia in October 1994 was one of the key episodes in the Post-Soviet Russia - UK relations and was aimed at strengthening economic, political and cultural ties between the two countries. President Yeltsin regarded this visit as a sign of recognition of his democratic achievements by the Western democratic states. The aim of this paper is to look at how the queen s visit was covered by Russian and British journalists and whether Yeltsin s point of view was recognized by the press. Particular attention is given to the analysis of differences between Russian and British journalists approaches to the representation of this event.
