Lively road; when the conductor shouts All aboard! you can hear him to the next station. Every train lamp shines like a headlight. Stop-over checks given on all through tickets; passenger can drop of the train as often as he likes, do the stations two or three days, and hop on the next revival train that comes thundering along. Good, whole-souled, companionable conductors; ain t any road in the country where the passengers feel more at home. No passes; every passenger pays full traffic rates for his ticket. Wesleyanhouse air-brakes on all trains, too; pretty safe road, but I didn t ride over it yesterday. Maybe you went to the Congregational church? I said. Popular road, said the brakeman; an old road, too; one of the very oldest in the country. Good road-bed and comfortable cars. Well-managed road, too; Directors don t interfere with Division Superintendents and train orders. Road s mighty popular, but it s pretty independent, too. See, didn t one of the Division Superintendents down East discontinue one of the oldest stations on the line two or three years ago? But it is a mighty pleasant road to travel on. Always has such a splendid class of passengers. Perhaps you tried the Baptist? I guessed once more. Ah, ha! said the brakeman, she s a daisy, isn t she? River road; beautiful curves; sweep around anything...
